Dear Folks -

I only write now to warn you against letting Lucia read the whole amount of the slave case - If my blood rises with such fury, I am sure hers will too. Tell her that I say I can't hardly stand it, & I know she can't, for it takes the best of health of ~~the~~ ~~it~~ I am not so much exhausted however with my emotions as you might suppose, for d. he awakes planning vengeance upon Hallett & his crew & I trust we shall do the same - If I find that Clifford is the gov attorney to prosecute the voters, I mean to get up a meeting in N Bedford where Wendell ^{or a paper} signed by all asking ^(Clifford) shall speak ~~at~~ ~~to~~ him, to resign his situation - In short I am as full of plans as old Harary - James Robbins calls Everett nothing but "Witch Sleaf" ^{to Wendell} ^{has} promised to call Hallett, B. H. Hayman, to make the name stick - Ann will write you the whole amount of the "affair" for she has been in town all the time I would not ^{ever} let her stay at home last Monday, "when her strength did fail & her limbs did tire" I am sorry I cant see Annes letter to you in order to see if she has done you justice for there is no excuse for her now if she does not. If the man is proved, it will be by the evidence which turned up in such an unexpected manner & which is declared by all the pious of which I am one, to be an answer to prayer, for writs were served in all the churches "Anthony Burns desires prayer", even Ephraim Peabody read it, Our three at Weymouth did the matter up well & Mr Perkins being absent, Mr Gouch of Abington came out with vigor, & gave the parish much satisfaction - but I have no time to write more. I went in town a week or two ago & dined with Jo & Fanny Richardson at the Fremont House. They told me considerable news of A. B. but I cant bring it to mind now. I will try for it another time - The school committee have granted Mr Emerson 6 months rest, & his salary to go on all the time of which I am glad. Ever yours D^r (Deborah Weston)
